BACKGROUND AND EXPERTISE

Ashraf Aboughazala the founder of A.M.A Developments has a combined experience of over 40 years in the infrastructure sector, having previously worked on major projects that include:

- High-Rise Residential Towers: Projects that involve modern design principles and energy-efficient technologies.
- Commercial Complexes: Development of office spaces that prioritize functionality and employee well-being.
- Mixed-Use Developments: Integrating residential, retail, and office spaces within a single project to foster community interaction.

Our experience in infrastructure and facility management gives a unique advantage in understanding the complexities of building regulations, environmental sustainability, and urban planning.

A.M.A Developments aims to expand its footprint in urban areas across the country, focusing on revitalizing underdeveloped neighborhoods. By investing in infrastructure and collaborating with local governments and communities, they seek to create spaces that not only meet the needs of residents and businesses but also contribute to the overall improvement of urban environments.

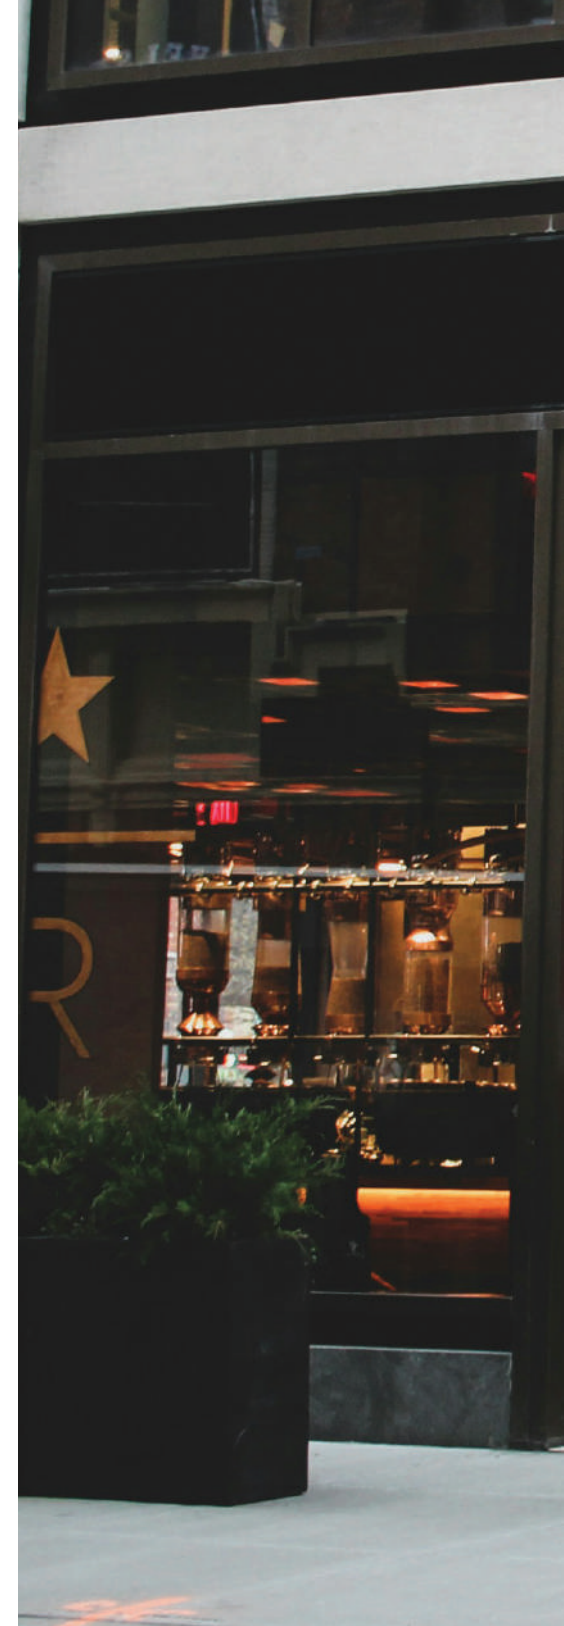

A.M.A Development has an edge in facility management by combining proactive maintenance, responsive service, and strategic planning to ensure every property operates at peak efficiency. We take pride in delivering seamless day-to-day operations, maintaining high standards of cleanliness, safety, and functionality across all building systems.

The Q Plaza

Quantum New Capital is located in an ideal location, with close proximity to public transportation and significant landmarks like a presidential palace, present an excellent opportunity for businesses looking to enhance their visibility and accessibility. This retail strip frontage accommodates a top-notch tenant such as cafés, convenience stores, and boutique services, creating a dynamic interface between the public realm and the building.

The retail strip not only enhances the pedestrian experience but also contributes to the overall value and utility of the mixed-use development, providing daily amenities to office workers and local residents alike.

We are highly focused on attracting and securing top-notch retail tenants that not only enhance the value of our properties but also create a vibrant and engaging environment for the community. Through careful market analysis, strategic outreach, and established relationships with national and boutique brands, we curate a tenant mix that aligns with local demand and complements the overall character of the development.

Our reputation for delivering well-managed, high-visibility spaces in prime locations makes us a preferred partner for leading retailers. By prioritizing quality, consistency, and long-term potential, we ensure that our retail spaces are filled with tenants that drive foot traffic, serve the needs of residents and office users, and contribute to a thriving, sustainable commercial ecosystem.

Commercial Offices in Prime Locations

In today's competitive business landscape, selecting the right location for your office is crucial to your company's success.

Quantum is in a prime location offering a multitude of advantages that can significantly impact your operations, brand image, and employee satisfaction.

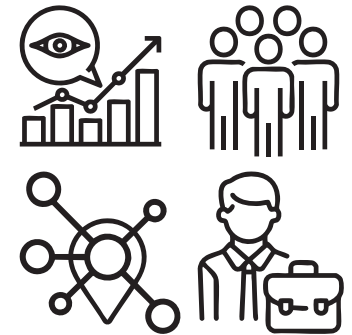

Here's a closer look at the key benefits of commercial offices situated in prime areas.

Enhanced Visibility and Accessibility

Having your office in prime locations are often situated in bustling areas with high visibility. This not only increases brand awareness but also makes it easier for clients and partners to find you. Proximity to major transportation hubs, such as airports and public transit, ensures accessibility for both employees and visitors, reducing commute times and enhancing overall productivity.

Increased Foot Traffic

Being located in a high-traffic area can lead to spontaneous visits from potential clients and customers. This is particularly advantageous for businesses that rely on walk-in traffic, such as retail or service-oriented companies. The presence of nearby amenities, such as restaurants and shops, can further encourage foot traffic and create a vibrant business environment.
